

- 1st Canadian Division.
- 2nd Canadian Division.
- 3rd Canadian Division.
- Camp Commandant.

WAR DIARIES.

All Units both British and Canadian, serving with the Canadian Corps, should prepare War Diaries in triplicate.

SEE AMEND-
MENT BELOW

- (2) The Original made up separately by itself and clearly marked "Original" and "Confidential" should be addressed to the Officer i/c A.G.'s Office at the Base, and forwarded on the first day of each month. It should also be clearly marked as follows:-

(Name of Unit)
War Diary for the month of

SEE AMEND-
MENT BELOW

- (3) The Duplicate, made up separately by itself and clearly marked "Duplicate" and "Confidential" should be addressed to the Officer i/c A.G.'s Office at the Base and forwarded on the first day of each month. It should also be clearly marked as follows:-

(Name of Unit)
War Diary for the month of

- (4) The triplicate copy may be retained by the Commanding Officers of Units for a period of three months, before being forwarded to the Record Office concerned:

Canadian Units and Staffs to Canadian Record Office
Westminster House, 7 Millbank, London, S.W.

British Units to British Record Offices in the United Kingdom.

- (5) Diaries should be made up into volumes by complete months. The Officer Commanding the Unit will sign the Diary monthly. The daily entries are to be initialled by the Officer making them at the time of entry, i.e. daily.

- (6) The following is an extract from a War Office letter:-

"For historical purposes it is very necessary that the "position of the trenches occupied should be capable of
"being identified on the Map.
"It would be very advantageous if the Units wherever "possible made a practise of stating what Units were
"on their flanks, or elsewhere in touch with them."

- (7) The above supersedes all previous instructions regarding the submission of War Diaries. All General Routine Orders regarding War Diaries will apply to the Canadian Corps if the word "Triplicate" is substituted for "Duplicate" in General Routine Orders No.1097 and 1125.

(Sd) W.B. Anderson.

Major,

D.A.A. & Q.M.G. Canadian Corps.

7.2.16.

AMENDMENT:

Extract from Can.Corps.A.51-4, d/- 25.8.16.

"Canadian Corps A-27-157 dated 7.2.16 is
"now modified and Units submit their diaries
"through their Divisions."