

(2).

15. "D" company will, as soon as the Ammonal tube is exploded, throw rifle grenades and bombs to the left of the crater and German line opposite the head of CLAUDOT sap so as to divert attention from the real objective. Great care must be exercised in this as the raiding party will pass close by this crater.
16. On the explosion of the Ammonal tube, the artillery will open fire on the German lines in rear and flanks outside area from A.10.c.9640. to A.10.d.0.C.
17. Medium Trench Mortars will, at the same time, put a barrage on our right flank outside same area.
18. On the same signal, the Stokes will concentrate their fire on the German front line on our flanks and prevent any enfilading of the Raiding party. On return of the Raiding party, they will concentrate on the German Front line.
19. The Medical Officer will establish a Dressing Station in the Firing line near junction of FORGES SAP.
20. All troops in the Front line will "Stand To" in their dugouts except those required for sentries. There must be no talking and no noise.
21. Signal to retire - Succession of three short blasts on the whistle.
22. Prisoners - any prisoners taken will be sent to Bn.Hdqs.
23. Rendezvous - on return from the raid, the Raiding party will assemble in ROCADE TRENCH, where a check will be made.
24. Watches will be synchronized at midnight December the 8th.

(Sgd) F.A.Gascoigne, Lt.Col.
Comdg.60th.Can.Bn. V.R.C.